

Client Contract & Portrait Agreement

The session fee covers the following:

- ~Up to four hours of coverage on your session date for newborn, senior and/or immediate family members only.
- ~Post-session custom image preparation with attention to each image.
- ~Images presented to you in an online gallery.

In order to hold your session date, your deposit must be received within seven days of submitting this agreement and remainder of your session fee is due prior to or on date of session. Your deposit is non-refundable but the studio will gladly reschedule due to illness or other unforeseen circumstances; please notify Photography By Joy at least 48 hours before your session if you must reschedule to another date. If there is a chance of rain in the forecast and you have scheduled an outdoor session, Photography By Joy will notify you a day or two before the session. Please note that the use of cameras (still and video) other than the photographer's is prohibited during your session.

Images will be available approximately 7-14 days after your session and will be presented to you in an online gallery that you are encouraged to share with friends and family. The gallery and cart are live for 30 days. During this time, you will make your portrait selection(s) and place your order; if you must delay in ordering, we can archive all of your images for a $50 fee at your request (up to 3 months) until your order is placed. Payment of your portrait order is due (via website) in full when you place the order. Due to the nature of custom photography, all sales are final.

All images taken at your session will be copyrighted by Joy Amburgey and are protected by Federal Copyright Law. It is therefore unlawful to reproduce her work in any manner. Please respect Joy's livelihood and the care and attention paid to each of your images by adhering to the copyright laws. Moreover, as an artist, Joy wishes to have control over the final look of her client's images. Scanned or reproduced images are both illegal and a degradation of the original image quality. In order for Photography By Joy to post your sneak peeks on social media, as well as images on the website, you will need to sign this optional Model Release.

"The photographs taken and presented by this photographer may be used by Photography By Joy and its agents, for the purpose of display, portfolio, advertising, website or publication to promote the business without compensation to the undersigned. You may request that specific images not be made public if they are of a personal nature by submitting a written notification to Photography By Joy."

I do not identify subjects by name on my websites or printed materials.
